Lighten your load. Pay a reduced amount and we'll finalize your debt.

Dear

It's not too late to make a very smart decision – one that can take a considerable weight off your shoulders

Settle your account for good.

With our simple Chase settlement plan, you have a great opportunity to put your outstanding credit card balance behind you once and for all. Best of all, you can do it for a lot less than what you owe.

As the attached coupon shows, we will accept a reduced payment of at least $7,984.00 if you respond by the date above. When you pay this amount, we'll stop any collection calls immediately and we will report your account as settled to the credit reporting agencies upon completion of your settlement. Payments or credits in excess of this amount will be applied against your entire outstanding balance.

We'll meet you part way. But you must act now.

When your account is past due, it's falling behind with each passing day, even if you don't hear from us. If you do nothing or wait too long, you'll miss out on this special opportunity. If that happens, you'll once again be responsible for the full amount owed.

One phone call is all it takes.

Wouldn't it feel great to resolve your balance, and have one less bill to worry about? Call us today at 1-888-809-0194 to make payment arrangements. Or, simply talk to us about your situation and get it off your chest. Odds are, we have a way to help you get the weight off your shoulders.

Sincerely,

A. Gordon Dennis

P.S. Very Important: Even if you don't think a settlement offer is right for you, there are other ways we can help. Call us today at 1-888-809-0194. We'll be glad to discuss other payment solutions that can help you resolve your debt.

We are required by the IRS to provide information about certain amounts that are discharged as a result of a cancellation of a debt on a form 1099C. If we are required to notify the IRS, you will receive a copy of the form 1099C that is filed with the IRS.
